2. [REDACTED] telephoned to say that he had been released from the hospital and could return to duty at any time; however, he preferred to take home leave and to report for duty shortly after 1 January. (I approved.)

3. [REDACTED] was up to report on publicity about [REDACTED] Apparently a newspaperman in Honolulu has published an article giving fairly complete details about the [REDACTED] which has now been folded up. The Agency, however, was not mentioned by name.

5. I met with Larry Houston, [REDACTED] and Emmett Echols to discuss the early retirement and other legislation which we propose to submit in the early days of the next Congress. It looked all right to me with one exception--that is, the provision which guarantees re-employment to anyone who transfers to CIA from another Government agency with the consent of that agency. We decided to leave this provision in but not to argue for it if anyone should protest.

6. I received another call from [REDACTED] I told him that we had been unable so far to figure out any way to help [REDACTED] but if he wanted to write me a letter, I would be glad to respond to it. (See separate Memorandum for the Record.)

7. Emmett Echols reported that [REDACTED] nomination for the Arthur S. Flemming Award was delivered today; and [REDACTED] who is handling this, assured us that we had in no way jeopardized [REDACTED] s chances by replying late. (In fact, they allow about ten days to take care of this sort of thing.)
